Victory to Cheerful Spirit.

To face life brightly as may be, to learn to laugh at minor troubles, to cultivate a sense of humor, all these mean fewer wrinkles and a longer youth. The Budget knows well one gallant woman upon whom trouble after trouble has been heaped, and who yet is beautiful at an age when many have laid aside every thought of trying to be otherwise than "decently covered," and who is fighting the battle of life, while her contemporaries are knitting by a fireside.—New York Tribune.

Are Learning Right Ways.

An English lady, long resident in Tokyo, once wrote to a friend that the impulse of her Japanese maids is always to sew on cuffs frills and other similar things topsy turvy and inside out. Since the publication of such reports the art of needlework has been greatly improved in Japan. Several of the English methods have been taught with great success, if only to judge by the lovely drawn thread work sold in great quantities in Great Britain.

Ancient Vaults Exposed.

During heavy rains in Kildare county, Ireland, a portion of the walls of historic Kildare abbey, Castledermot, became undermined and fell, when it was discovered that underneath were vaults in which were skulls and human remains. It is calculated that these remains have been there for the last eight centuries, since the time the abbey was a monastery.

History Repeats Itself.

Not long since a restaurant was started on Tenth street just north of Market. It was called "the Napoleon," and the name was on the window in large letters. When the place failed not long after starting, some cruel wag chalked under the word "Napoleon" "at Waterloo."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Grandfather Holds the Record.

There has been much progress, of course, but still we doubt if the young man who licks up the ground with a six-cylinder snorter thinks any more of himself than did his sturdy grandfather who could make four yokes of oxen perform in front of a big load of freight out of old Jefferson.—Galveston News.

Searches for Buried Treasure.

A countess who lives near Rome is carrying on a search for buried treasure. She found in her library an old manuscript, wherein was told of a treasure buried in her land, and directions given for the excavations. A Spiritualist is said to have informed the countess that the words of the manuscript are true.

Reach for Them.

Poor Interest.

Other people may be interested in your troubles, but if they are their interest isn't likely to be worth much.

There is no car line to heaven. If you find yourself sitting down as you journey you are not on the way.—Christian Herald.

Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.
